Priority-1: Attaining the Bogor Goals

Excerpt from Para 4 of APEC Economic Leaders'
Declaration of Common Resolve,
Bogor, Indonesia, 15 November 1994:

4. As we approach the twenty-first century, APEC needs to reinforce economic cooperation in the Asia-Pacific region on the basis of equal partnership, shared responsibility, mutual respect, common interest, and common benefit, with the objective of APEC leading the way in:

- strengthening the open multilateral trading system
- enhancing trade and investment liberalization in the Asia-Pacific; and
- intensifying Asia-Pacific development cooperation

Priority-1: Attaining the Bogor Goals

Trade & Investment Liberalization & Facilitation

In addition to on-going (carry-over) work, activities may include new initiatives in line with the overarching theme. Some initial ideas:

- ☐ Best Practices in educating Food Security standards to SMEs
- ☐ Best Practices on trade logistics for SMEs
- ☐ On-line commerce for SMEs
- ☐ Customs initiative in combating illicit drugs & narcotics
- ☐ Possible initiatives on “Blue Economy”
- ☐ Statistics on Trade in Services
- ☐ Potentials and challenges to enhancing SME participation in supply chains in APEC (retailing services)
- ☐ Infrastructure investment
- ☐ Public-Private investment dialogue on CSR
- ☐ Investment Forum (back-to-back with APEC CEO Summit)
- ☐ Capacity building on electric car
- ☐ Possible initiatives under Life Sciences Innovation Forum (LSIF)

any inputs, recommendations, or new proposals for consideration are welcomed to make sure that APEC remains credible and relevant in this time of trying and rapid changes
